Best of luck to a very sweet girl. I have enjoyed knowing you and working together in Mrs. Lunn's class. Never forget the party we gave Sheila. It was alot of worry but we had fun. I am glad to see you in Spanish and Geometry. Too miss you.

Love,

Donna,

The main thing I think I should say is we're in for quite an experience this year (3rd period) if you know.
Have a wonderful year and best of luck (we'll need it) for the rest of your life.

Where our loyal patriots won
In the warm October sun
Stands our school, a tribute to
Those heroes, strong and true.

Hail York High! Hail York High!
May that spirit never die,
Hail York High! Hail York High!
May her banner ever fly.

We will follow in their way,
Steadfast loyal day by day.
Honor to York High we'll bring

FOREWORD

1964 is York High School's tenth birthday. During the ten years, many graduates have passed through York's portals, going out to make a place and a name for themselves in the world beyond. There has been almost a sameness in all graduating classes, as each from the first on has maintained the high standards and ideals that York instills in all her graduates. The members of each senior class have all left their imprint, too, upon the life at York, whether the class had forty members—as the first one did—or two hundred—as the class of '64 does. Through the years they have initiated and fashioned the activities that now have become a pattern at York, for it is the senior class in any school that leads the way. Thus, the 1964 Falcon staff has tried to picture the happenings at York which have become traditional by showing you this the tenth year. Yet while each year and each class may seem the same, they can not be. There are always some events which make a particular time more distinctive than other times. Therefore, as you enjoy the 1964 FALCON, it is the hope of the staff that you will see York's tradition, as well as York's present, and that you will recall with fondness those who, while preparing to leave York, were also making their footprints upon the sands of time.

Decade at York — for Building Citizens

After ten years only four teachers remain at York from those who were here when the school opened: Mr. Lewis Simpson, Mrs. Helen Holben, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Thelma Hansford.

Nancy Kara is congratulated for winning a scholarship on Class Day.

Molly Laird, class chaplain, held the devotions on Senior Class Day.

A Tradition at York Has Been the Emphasis

The University of Virginia School of Engineering and Applied Science sponsored the first Junior Science, Humanities, and Engineering Symposium for outstanding science students on April 16 of this year. Nancy Kara, the valedictorian of the Senior class, was chosen to represent York in Charlottesville. Because her project on comparative intelligence tests was so outstanding, Nancy was selected as a student speaker and finalist. As a finalist, Nancy was nominated to attend the Second National U. S. Army Junior Science and Humanities Symposium, which was held at Fort Leslie J. McNair, Washington, D. C., on April 22-24, 1964. Here, along with top science students from fifty states, Nancy attended a series of lectures and panel discussions. For representing York so well in this and other science projects, Nancy was chosen as the recipient of the York High Senior Science Award for outstanding work in science.

Each year the DAR awards a citizenship award to a senior girl. The 1964 winner was Peggy Diehl, selected by faculty and classmates. The faculty of York High also each year selects the best all-around boy and girl in the senior class to have their names engraved on plaques at the school. Doug Kanney and Ann Strong were the '64 winners. Doug also won the Richard Bryant Memorial Award.

Upon Excellence in Scholarship and Leadership

AWARDS DAY

At Awards Day, statuettes were given to those students having the highest average in each grade level. (Below, Kneeling) Wade Smith 10; Debbie Johnson 9; Ted Stanley 9; Lana Ditmer 8; Rodney Bonck 8. (Standing) Nancy Kara 12; Don Nicklin 12; Peggy Wheeler 11; John Polce 11; Jean Hudson 10.

to the Many Student Centered Activities

The Juniors added cotton candy to the list of items sold in the concession stand in previous years.

Mrs. Smiths' desk was as usual the nucleus of Senior Activities—especially during the picture taking season as Julie Brandes and Molly Laird soon discovered.

Mary Ann Ellis and Gail Bruce decorated the main showcase for the S.C.A. Federation meeting held at York—and indeed the attractive showcases have been an integral part of the school's environment.

Each Year Has Been Individualistic and

In 1963-64 there was the widespread hootenanny craze and York joined the fad by having a hootenanny, too. Above, Mary Ann Ellis and Jeff Reynolds sang at York's Hootenanny.

The Senior Class trip to New York City in May was highlighted by a visit to the World's Fair.

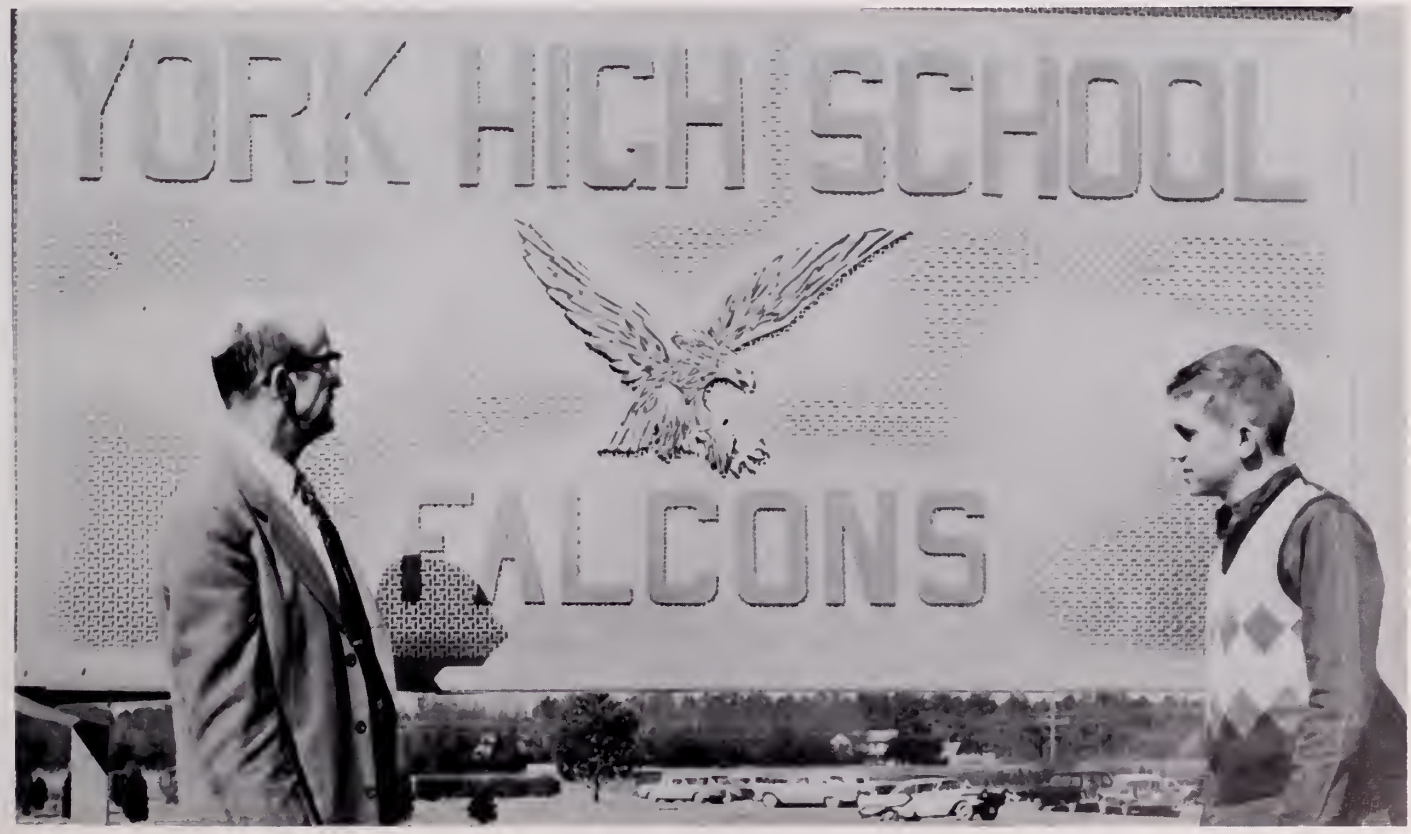
(Below) York's Speech Winners in the District Contest, Chris Robinson, Poetry Reading and Buz Norton, Prose Reading. Chris later won third place for his readings in the state contest. 1964 was the year commemorating the 400th birthday of William Shakespeare. Below, bulletin boards call attention to the event.

Distinct From Others as Time Moves on

Students at York, as the schools throughout the country, were shocked and stunned over the assassination in November of the President of the United States. (Below) When the news came on that fatal afternoon, it seemed impossible to study—or concentrate—one only wanted to withdraw to a secluded spot—and weep.

(Right) The school flag was flown at half mast twice during the year. First in respect to the late President Kennedy; second upon the death of General MacArthur.

Mr. Anderson, The Key Club Sponsor, and Joe Virostek, the club president, proudly viewed the new school sign, one of the school improvements made during the year.



Graduation — The Goal of All Students —

Mr. Stevens enjoyed the reading of the Last Will and Testament by Marilyn Reckard and the prophecy by Mary Lou Berger.

Paul Thiel received the boys' Senior statue from Mr. Stevens.

The chorus sang the "Graduation Prayer" on Class Day.

an Ever New and Exciting Event

Mr. Stevens presented the girls' Senior Statuette to Candy Metz.

The Collegiates, Wallace Dawson, Lee Bowling, Allen Bowen, Jeff Blanton, Ted Crockett, entertained the student body on Class Day.

We Dedicate . . . To a

The student and his individual experiences determine the spirit of a school. The time spent at York is usually filled with classroom achievements, the effort and toil to acquire maximum scholarship. Yet to the individual student, the days he remembers most consciously are those spent outside of the classroom: Listening during study period to the replaying of a record heard in class, packing a locker full of belongings, planning a Powder Puff game, having fun in the cafeteria during lunch, taking the school pictures, relaxing during homeroom, measuring for cap and gown, selling tickets for many projects, especially the senior play, or grieving over the death of a leader. The moments of joy, sadness, laughter, seriousness, or plain "goofing off" are portrayed in our pictures; for these are the spirits of York. It is to these students, who, while preparing for life, mingle the serious with the carefree, that this book is dedicated.

Decade of Students — For What They Are

ACADEMICS

Members of the administration often had to retreat to the quietude of the teachers' lounge to regain new energy before facing the next class.

A THOUGHT WORTH REMEMBERING:

Success is not best measured by positions occupied, nor titles held, nor the parlors and palaces come upon, nor even discoveries made, but in the everyday accomplishments and deeds of the common people.

To the students of York High:

Open your mind and let it be saturated with knowledge; realizing that knowledge without understanding and compassion will destroy you.

Open your eyes and let them see the beauty of the world; realizing that ugliness is ever present.

Open your ears and hear the wonders of the universe; realizing that the lost are ever calling and one who fails to respond can never really see or hear the beauties and wonders of the world.

Open your heart and let it be filled with deeds and thoughts of helping others; realizing that failure to do so will cast a dark shadow of need and want over the entire world.

Seniors Visited Governing Bodies of

Mr. Russell Carneal answered talks about Virginia government.

Seniors invaded the capitol.

Peggy Diehl posed with the guard at Arlington Cemetery.

Within a two week span in January the government classes of Mrs. Hansford and Mr. Anderson took a day off from school in order to see the Virginia State General Assembly and other governmental organizations actually in the process of making our state laws at Richmond.

Then, on March 11, 1964, at approximately 5:00 a.m. the excited Seniors gathered to wait for the bus that would take them on their government class trip to Washington, D.C. The trip turned out to be one of the best yet. They saw many fascinating sights, such as: The U.S. Congress in action; the Supreme Court building, the F.B.I., the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the White House, the Commerce Building, the Arlington Cemetery, including the late President Kennedy's grave, and some of the class even saw the Smithsonian Institute and had lunch at the zoo. They ended the excursion with dinner at Pentagon City and headed for home. The members of the class were much enriched by our experiences at both the nation's capitol and the state capitol.

Don't we look nice?

Both the State and Nation

Never a moment's rest for the weary senior.

Seniors stopped for a lunch break at the zoo.

Like the rest of the nation, the class of 1964 felt deeply the tragedy of the president's death November, 1963. When they knew they were visiting Washington, they made a point of including a visit to his tomb as a part of their itinerary in order to pay a last tribute to a great president.

Seniors paused for a moment at President Kennedy's grave.

—"THE FABULOUS FOLLIES"— A BIG HIT

Through the efforts of many people, all of whom were under the leadership and guidance of Mrs. Pat Gibson, the Senior Variety Show finally got off to a great opening night Friday, May 1. The following night was just as fabulous with the presentation of gifts and flowers to our advisors as a grand finale.

The final curtain of "Fabulous Follies" fell with a flourish of laughter and tears as the class of '64 closed out its presentation of the year.

Carrie Curtis sings? To the reporters, telling them to have patience.

Seniors preserved their energy to they could climb to the top of the Statue of Liberty.

Sleepy Seniors anxiously waited for their parents to pick them up.

Five Greyhound Buses were used to take the Seniors to New York.

Pat and Juanita relaxed under the shade of a tree near the fountain.

Anne Welch, Sandra Bunting, and Ann Stubbs enjoyed their spaghetti.

Seniors quenched their thirsts with refreshing root beers.

Enthusiastic School and Community Drives

1964 was a very active year for the S.C.A. of York. Beginning the year with an orientation program where school activities and policies were introduced to new students, the S.C.A., in November, sponsored a Thanksgiving drive during which food, money, and clothing were collected and distributed to six needy families in the area. Also, at this time the S.C.A. participated in a program to increase school spirit and unity. In December a Christmas Spirit Week was sponsored. Again students brought in clothing, toys, and food for fifteen families. This Christmas drive was the biggest and best in York's history and something for each student to be proud of In January the organization began a drive to purchase a portable speaker system for the cafeteria and also tried to get a public address system for the school by emphasizing the need to our parents and the school board. Perhaps this will have to be a project for future S.C.A.'s at York. York has truly been improved this year through the S.C.A., and we hope that next year will be just as prosperous as this one has been.

Hard-Working Falcon Staff

(L to R) Editor: Pat Simmons
Assistant Editor: Sally Bryant
Art and Layout Editor: Wayne Gore

The 1964 Falcon Staff worked diligently to produce an annual which would capture in a lasting form those wonderful memories of the school year. Yet, the long hours spent in planning, in selling ads, writing copy, taking pictures, typing, selling subscriptions and performing numerous other tasks were enjoyable, for we wanted our 1964 Falcon to be the best. As a result, Room 102 during sixth period each day may have seemed like Grand Central Station sometimes, but we all were working toward one purpose! Needless to say, we could not have achieved such a goal without the cooperation of both faculty and student body. Here is the result. We hope you enjoy this pictorial reminiscence of the year 1964.

Talon Staff Combines With Journalism

Connie and Cherryl discuss the layout of the latest Talon.

Students find reading the Talon an enjoyable pastime.

Known as the YORK YELL before 1962, York High's newspaper, the TALON, has been a student publication for eight years. Prior to this year the paper was an entirely extracurricular activity. Though staff members still had to sacrifice much time and work after school hours, a Journalism Class was organized for the first time in York's history. The 1963-64 TALON staff included many more members than those students in the Journalism Class; however, in future years the Journalism Classes will compose the entire staff. The purpose of the TALON is to keep the student body well informed of school functions. The main objective of the publication is to promote a better relationship between the students and teachers, and to give both faculty and students an opportunity to express opinions openly. On May 1-2, Connie Pruett and Cherryl Oliver represented the TALON at the SIPA Convention which is held at Washington and Lee University in Lexington every year. At this convention the TALON was constructively criticized by impartial judges and many facts were pointed out about improving a school paper. This year, the TALON, published monthly, was printed at Virginia Gazette in Williamsburg. Another first for this year's staff was to draw up the paper's first constitution so that future staffs will be able to begin their work with a strong set of rules supporting them. Also in past years each year's staff had to begin anew by electing the editors and managers. The '63-'64 staff set a precedent by electing the leaders of the staff for the coming year in the spring.

Wes and Lee say, "Want to buy a Talon?"

Science Club

In order to keep up with the growing interest in science, York's Science Club promotes many activities, lectures and field trips through which students may become better prepared to meet the scientific challenge of tomorrow. Yet the main project of the club is the annual Science Fair in which all science students may participate by entering their original research projects. Affiliated with the Virginia Junior Academy of Science, the Science Clubs of America, and the Future Scientists of America, the Y.H.S. Science Club also participates in the various fairs and contests sponsored both locally and nationally.

John Higgins

On March 20, the Science Open House was held at York, at which time interested students presented original projects done during the school year. John Higgins won first place in Physics for his exhibit and represented the school at Tidewater Science Congress where he won grand prize in the Junior Division.

HONOR COUNCILS

The Honor Councils of York High School endeavor to promote honor and integrity among the students by inculcating an inner discipline that will lead to a more trustworthy life. The councils further desire to create a closer relationship between the students and the faculty by attempting to raise the standard of conduct.

To further these ideals the Honor Councils, this year, tried to encourage the development of a more sincere and concerned feeling for the need of the honor system. Honor week was promoted and individual honor cards were distributed to the student body. The Honor Councils also provided for each room plaques on which slogans as reminders of the honor system were printed. Furthermore, in order to serve the students more thoroughly, the councils were divided into two separate bodies, the junior council and the senior council. The junior council handled the cases and problems involving the 8th and 9th grades and the senior council handled the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades.

Community Through Effective Leadership

"The Beta Club is for leadership,
For loyalty and truth;
The Beta Club is for fellowship,
A guide and help to youth."

The Thomas Nelson Chapter of the National Beta Club, having been an active organization at York High School for 10 years, promotes the principles of honesty, service, cooperation, responsibility, industriousness, humility, and charity. The Beta Club stands for the full life—one governed by the highest principles.

The basic qualifications for membership are an outstanding scholastic achievement, good character, leadership abilities, and a commendable attitude. In the Fall 13 deserving Juniors and Seniors were tapped into the membership of the club. Through the planning and carrying-out of various projects and activities, the Beta Club strives to serve the school and community as well as its own members.

This year the York High Key Club started off with the annual used-book sale and the usual Key Club dress-up day on Wednesdays. Composed of seniors, juniors and sophomores, and led by president Joe Virostek, the club then began to shine. The members sold pennants and book covers, parked cars at football games, and ushered at special assemblies. The project committee built a sign for the front of the school, the lieutenant governor of division thirteen, Tom McDaniel, held the annual division caucus in our auditorium, and the club attended the Capitol District Convention in Richmond in March. In February the Key Club left the leadership of their old sponsor, the Peninsula Kiwanis Club, and took on a new, closer sponsor, the newly organized York Kiwanis Club. At a special banquet of February 24 the official transfer took place before an inter-club meeting of the Peninsula Kiwanis Club, the new York Kiwanis Club, and the York Key Club.

Rally and Sponsor Senior Scholarship Fund

The Sarah Kemble Knight Chapter of the Future Teachers of America was formed at York to promote an interest in the teaching profession. Membership is open to all students in grades 9-12 who have a "C" or better average, and are considering a career in the field of education.

The Club's main activities this year have been sponsoring a Rally for all F.T.A.'s in the district (at which the club was instrumental in organizing a District F.T.A.) and a project allowing members to observe classes in elementary schools. Also, F.T.A. members have taken over classes, put up bulletin boards, welcomed the faculty to York, ushered at county teachers' meetings, and attended the State F.T.A. Convention. Finally, the club observed National Education Week and Teaching Career Month, and sponsored a Senior award and Senior scholarship—all adding up to a very busy year for the F.T.A.

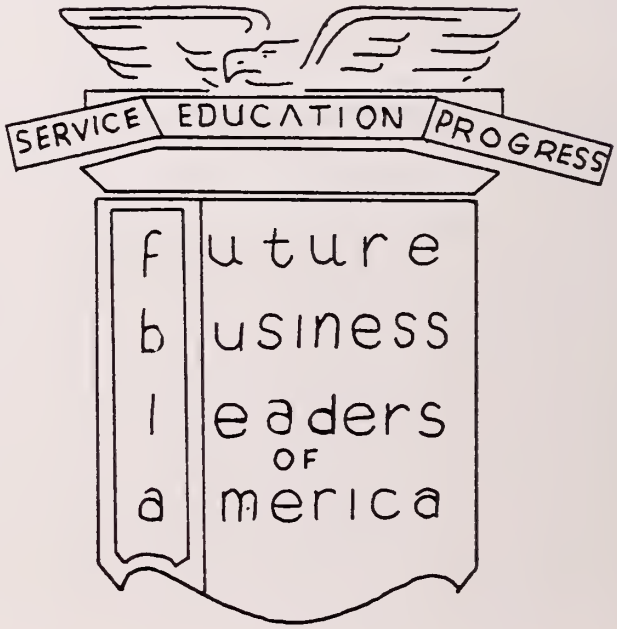
The activities of the FBLA consisted of: taking a field trip to Norfolk for a fall workshop at Old Dominion College; giving a Christmas party for the orphans at Dunbar; and having a project to make money. 200 dozen doughnuts were sold, making a profit of $40. This year was also the first year York entered any contest at the regional spring contest held in Old Dominion. York even ran a candidate for peninsula president of the FBLA. In public speaking, Dot Robertson won first place and Mary Ramsey won superior rating; the new Tidewater president is Pat Mortimer. Pat Mortimer, Dot Robertson, and Mary Ramsey attended the state FBLA convention in Roanoke, where Pat was installed as the new Tidewater president. Anyone who has taken one business subject can join the FBLA. Only seniors can be president and vice president, but all other officers can be from any grade.



DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION CLUB

A highlight for our club this year was the annual District Contest where our club and individual members competed against other D.E. Clubs on the Peninsula. In the Display Contest, Janine McClain was awarded first place, and Peggy Caruthers second place. Alan Legro won third place in the advertising contest. The first place winners of District Contests are eligible to compete at the state level. Peggy Caruthers was sent to Roanoke as an alternate delegate in March. There, her knowledge and ability in the field of Display was judged best in the state. She was accompanied to Roanoke by Christa Risner and Bill Blue, who were delegates to the State Distributive Education Leadership Conference. As a first place State winner, Peggy was sent to Chicago to represent Virginia in the national Display contest of the National DECA Leadership Conference.

"Le Cercle Francais" began the year with an election of a head chairman who presided until the election of officers was held. The first thing the French club did was to appoint Bobby Swain to head a committee to draw up a constitution. When the French Club held its election of officers, Amy Emerson was elected President; Bobby Swain, Vice President; Barbara Strebel, Secretary; J. A. Maxwell, Treasurer; and John Collie Reporter. The highlight of the year in activities was the French Club's sponsoring, with the other foreign language clubs, an International Dance.

SPANISH CLUB

OFFICERS

"Los Falcones Espanoles," originating with the idea of acquainting its members with the Spanish language and customs of Spanish speaking countries, has terminated another year. Besides participating in traditional Spanish Club activities, such as the banquet in December, this year's club originated two new ideas. On December the twenty-third a poor Puerto-Rican family of eight was treated with food, toys, and clothing for a "Feliz Navidad." The Spanish Club, along with the help of the Spanish classes, collected money to provide for this project. In February, the success of the International Dance rested a great deal on the efforts of the club's members. All in all, the 1964 Spanish club has achieved most of its aims and hopes next year's organization may profit from this year's experiences.

The Latin Club of York High School is interested primarily in increasing the students' knowledge of Roman times and customs through sponsoring several events during the school year and by inviting guest speakers to discuss ancient and modern Rome. The club's main event is the club banquet, at which Roman food is served, and the traditional Roman dress and entertainment are displayed. Besides being an educational club, the Latin Club is also a service club, helping others when needed. For example, at Christmastime the members contributed gifts and a Christmas tree to the Weaver Orphanage.

The Electronics Club, in its present form, was organized during the 1962-63 term under the Sponsorship of Mr. Henkel. The Club exists for the purpose of education in the field of electronics. A secondary purpose is the providing of services to the school in such matters of electronics as audio installations for the cafeteria, athletic field, and gymnasiums. The speaker system and audio console was installed in the cafeteria and is the main service function of the club for this year. Planning for this project was undertaken by the Club at the suggestion of Mr. Henkel as something really worthwhile. Money for purchase of equipment was raised through cooperation of the SCA, but all planning, selection of equipment, installation of equipment etc. was accomplished by the Electronics Club. In addition to this project, several field trips and social activities were part of the Club activities.

The German Club encourages students of the German language to become interested in a nation whose language they are learning. At our bimonthly meetings we see films about Germany, hear programs prepared by various members, and discuss our correspondence with Helmut and Sielo Rust in Germany. Our activities this past school year included: sending 100 marks ($25) to the Rusts for Christmas, sending them a card signed by all of the members, and participating in the International Dance. We also sent a tape to the Rusts with a message from each member, since we had received several tapes from them.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The F.H.A. is the national organization of girls and boys studying homemaking in high schools of the United States and its territories. This organization has strengthening family life as its underlying objective. As an integral part of the homemaking program, F.H.A. provides opportunities for students to have additional experiences in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking. "Citizens in Action" was the theme for the York Chapter which centered all of its programs around phases of this topic. The Chapter also had a number of projects relating to its theme, such as: tea for new teachers, a roasted peanut sale, recreational activity with young homemakers, a community Christmas sing at Patrick Henry Hospital, a student body assembly, and a family picnic.

The F.N.A. was organized to help students interested in the Nursing career become acquainted with the many fields open in the area of medicine. Members took part in a variety of activities such as: Helping in the March of Dimes, providing a Valentine's party for underprivileged children and visiting the local hospitals. We also sent a representative to Charlottesville for the open house sponsored by the University of Virginia.

During this past year the Youth For Christ Club (better known as YFC) participated in activities at school and with the other nine YFC Clubs on the Peninsula. Our quiz team this year, composed of Leah Draper, Dwan Cockes, Bob Smith, John Keel, Betsy Draper, Rita Moore, and Charles Kane; after competing seven months with eight neighboring schools, we placed third. Planning a program every week composed of skits, special music, and visiting speakers, was the usual routine for the officers; but the results were truly rewarding, for we planned activities which encouraged Christian fellowship among the students at York.

The literary magazine of York High School, formerly called the Falconite, underwent a change this year. Whereas previously it had been published by the faculty and English Department, this year it was a student publication. After selecting the initial organization, the staff decided to change the name from the Falconite to the Eboracum, which is the old Celtic name for York. The Staff then sponsored a literary contest which gave the student body a chance to display their artistic and literary skills. There were over three hundred entries in poetry, essay, short story, speech, and art. From the material submitted the staff selected the best work and illustrated it for publication. The finished edition, complete with drawings, speeches, and creative writing, was then sold to the student body at fifty cents a copy.

Majorettes

Representing York High School, under the direction of Mr. C. R. Costa, the York High School majorettes have had a continuous schedule of activities throughout the year. They took an active part in the school's fooball halftime shows, where they strived for perfection and accuracy in their routines. Their annual fire baton routine was accented with their new fire baton uniforms, which were seen at one of the football games. In addition preparation for parades and concert routines constituted a large part of their schedule. They took part in many of the student assemblies that were held throughout the year. Special pep rally uniforms, which were designed for use in flag routines, were seen by the students during the football season. The use of flags by the majorettes was a new addition to their many activities.

The 1963 Football season was, to say the least, exciting. The unpredictable Falcons surprised everyone with a 37 to 7 victory over Warwick. This was the first time York has ever beaten the Farmers in football. Some other surprises were the losses to Poquoson and James Blair. Although the Falcons completed the season with a 4-6 record, its offense scored 158 points—the best since the undefeated season in 1958. The Falcons saved the best for the last. Against Deep Creek they pulled through with a 32 to 27 victory in the last few minutes of the game. While it is true that the wins were scarce until the end, the season was exciting with the Falcons finally getting into high gear—but too late in the season to make much of a showing.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The 1963 York Football Banquet was held at the Mexicali Restaurant on December 14. After a steak dinner, Mr. John Stevens introduced the guests. Then Bob Soleau, fullback at William and Mary, talked on his philosophies of life. Bob Soleau was followed by his teammate T. W. Alley who gave an informative talk on college life. The football players were then individually introduced by Coaches Grayson Williams, Charly Hovis, and Allen Barbee. The assistant principal, Mr. Lewis Simpson, recapped York's football history. The program was completed with Paul Thiel reading an original poem by Mrs. Williams. To show their appreciation the football players presented gifts to each of the coaches.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Although the Falcon Basketball team didn't win many games this year, its never-give-up attitude overshadowed the poor season's record of 3 wins and 13 losses. With a starting lineup of only one senior and 4 juniors the Falcons won their first three games. Lacking experience and height needed for a winning season in the Eastern District and losing the star center, Al Audick, the team then lost the last thirteen ball games. With Coach Gus Smith's building program coming into effect next year, four starters returning and a crop of impressive J.V.'s, the Falcons should have a winning season in 1965.

VARSITY BASEBALL

Under the coaching of Coach Allen Barbee and with one year's experience in Group 1-A competition, the baseball team battled to a creditable 5-11 record. The only thing which kept them out of contention for the title was the lack of experienced varsity players. Since they are losing only two players from this year's squad, many great things are expected from them next year.

VARSITY TRACK

The track team, led by Tom McDaniel, Hank Immel, and Marshall Stone, chugged to an 0-6 record. Although they didn't win a meet, they came close losing to Hampton 57-56.

The most exciting part of each meet was the pole vault, with Marshall Stone constantly pushing his record to a season's final height of 12' 6". Other record breakers were Gregg Magee with a fast time of 20.2 seconds on the low hurdles and Robert Fleshman leap of over 20 feet in the broad jump. The track team is now looking forward to next season and a track.

The cheering squad of '64 aimed at precision and school spirit. Many post-football game dances were sponsored by the cheerleaders in order to appropriate money for the annual football dance given in honor of the football team. Pep rallies, fight signs, the bonfire, and the blue and gray days helped them do the enormous job of promoting school spirit.

York's 1963-64 Homecoming was a tremendous success. The Falcons defeated the Warwick Farmers by a score of 37 to 7. During the half-time festivities, Miss Carolyn Catron, escorted by Robert Hurst, was crowned queen by Hank Immel and Charlie Beemer. The Queen's attendants were Miss Lindy Blanton, escorted by Gary Howard, and Miss Ronnie Arnett, escorted by Bob Hawkins. After the coronation ceremony, the Freshman class was presented with the winning trophy for their float entitled "Stomp the Clods."

Gail Thompson crowns Stoney, Powderpuff Queen, during half-time ceremonies.

Seniors and Juniors Had an Exciting Powder Puff Game

Although the '63 Powder Puff game ended in a 7-7 tie, both the Senior and Junior girls felt that they had been victorious. The game was exciting from the first quarter to the last 35 seconds during which the stubborn Seniors held the Juniors on their 3-yard line. The game ended with all the girls glad the ordeal was over, yet sad that their football days were ended . . . until next season, at least for the Juniors.

The able Senior coaches, Doug, Bob, and Hank, talk over game strategy.

. . . And departing
leave behind us footprints on the sands of time.

Donna-

I can't believe you really have your annual - took some time getin' it, huh? Will always remember our great discussions in Miss Baker's - oh sorry!! - Mrs. Rush's homeroom, and the fun teasing Mr. Richardson - I pity the poor man! Good luck in Geometry, in your library work, and whatever you may do. You're real nice, so stay that way.

Love,
Jolene

Donna,
Best of luck to a real nice girl. Stay away from "horses" he cause you might fail Ff. Remember gym class.
Friends always
Lee

Donna,
Best of luck to a real nice girl. I wish we had more classes together. We've been friends for years. Have a fun senior year. Have lots of fun in your remaining years at Rich. Good luck!
Diane

It's been a great year at Lynda this year and next year will be even better. It's been great knowing you. Stay just as nutty as you are, you brain! Be good and God Bless

Love ya,
